FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

The Continental Group Announces Celebration/Kissimmee Expansion with its New Satellite Office in Celebration, FL

(Hollywood, FL.) December 01, 2010 – The Continental Group, the largest property management company in Florida, is pleased to announce the opening of its newest satellite office in Celebration, FL. The office, located at 690 Celebration Avenue in the Town Hall Center Building, will serve the local Celebration and Kissimmee Homeowner and Condominium Association communities.

“Our extended presence in the Greater Orlando area will allow for further expansion of our customer support systems and customer service for the community.” said Fernando Dominguez, Vice President of New Business Development of the Orlando Division for the Continental Group.

As the largest manager of condominium and homeowner associations in the state, and one of our South Florida’s leading private sector employers, the Continental Group’s custom-tailored property management services will aptly serve the diverse and unique communities of Celebration and Kissimmee. Their new expansion will provide sophisticated property management in addition to employment opportunities for the local community.
